The MLSA Winter HS Boys ID Camp at Danville HS Stadium (for current grades 9-12 – max of 35 boys) will feature numerous top-level Division I, II and III college coaches from the region that will assess the players in attendance. All the players will receive a short quality training session followed by small and large group play, to be identified by the attending college coaches. A recruiting talk, along with a question-and-answer session, with the college coaches, will be an additional feature for all campers.
